No. 2:23-cv-01879-JLR

PLAINTIFFS’ STATUS REPORT

Plaintiffs Amazon.com, Inc., Amazon.com Services LLC, and Amazon Technologies, Inc., (“Amazon”) submit this Status Report in accordance with the Court’s April 16, 2024 Order directing Amazon to provide the status of efforts to identify remaining defendants and serve unserved defendants. Dkt. 77. Amazon has now identified a REKK operator defendant and served the Amended Complaint, Dkt. 89, on all but one Defendant, Cosmin Sopca, whose service is outstanding with the Hague Ministry in the United Kingdom.

A. Amazon has Identified REKK

Amazon uncovered the identity of Domantas Radeckas, a REKK Operator Defendant who was added as a named party in Amazon's Amended Complaint. Dkt. 89. At this time, based on the discovery Amazon has collected to date, Amazon does not anticipate naming additional defendants.

B. Defendant Awaiting Service: Cosmin Sopca

Amazon has served the Amended Complaint on all Defendants except Cosmin Sopca. Sopca was served with the original Complaint on July 15, 2024. Amazon initiated service of the Amended Complaint with the Hague Ministry in the United Kingdom on June 21, 2024 and again on October 8, 2024, in response to the Ministry's request for a duplicate copy for service.

The Ministry has not notified Amazon of the status of the service request. On December 10, 2024, Amazon requested its local counsel in the United Kingdom to ask the Ministry for a status update on the service request. According to the Ministry, service was attempted but Sopca was "unknown at the address" and Amazon should receive written notice of the service attempt in a few weeks. Amazon has requested local counsel to initiate an investigation to identify an updated address for the defendant and intends to request service of the defendant at a new address.

DATED this 16th day of December, 2024.
